

Lives Worth Living

An Independent Lens Film

Please join the City of Worcester Commission on Disability for a public screening of “Lives Worth Living”, an Independent Lens documentary about the disability rights movement and the passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

#TeachDisabilityRights

Presented by: The City of Worcester Commission on Disability and the Office of Human Rights and Disabilities

When: Monday, July 22nd 12noon-1:30pm

Where: The Worcester Pop Up, 50 Franklin Street, Worcester MA 01608

Close captioned and audio description will be available

ASL interpretation provided

Sponsored by

